

Alcove Addiction Recovery Centre for Women – Child Care Worker

Alcove is a long-term addiction recovery residence for women dealing with addiction, abuse and mental health distress. We are looking for a dynamic, creative, passionate childcare worker who can juggle many tasks while caring for children under 6, including babies who are weeks-old.

The Organization: For nearly 50 years, Alcove Addiction Recovery Center for Women has been offering a safe, long-term addiction recovery residence for women only. The unique aspect of Alcove is that it is the only recovery centre that allows women to have their children with them, as they journey to sobriety.

The position: We're looking for a responsible, dynamic childcare worker. Not only do you care for children while their mothers are in group or individual therapy, or at appointments or outings, but you can also help with household tasks during your time there. Some knowledge of Child development and play is also important, as we often have children from weeks-old up to 6 years of age.

Requirements:

- Calgary Police Check with Vulnerable Sector Search
- Child Care First Aid (or willing to obtain)
- Fully Vaccinated

What Skills Should you Have?

- Ability to look after up to 3 children at a time
- Possess early childhood development skills: be willing to play games, help with homework, keep children occupied
- Be able to assist in keeping the residence tidy and safe
- Possess problem-solving skills

How to Apply:

Please submit your resume along with a list of dates and times you would be available for initial, over-the-phone interview (approximately 15 minutes). If the phone interview is successful, we will invite you in for a second, in-person interview (approximately 1-1.5 hours). We invite you to please review our website ahead of the interview, where you will find more information about our philosophy and the location of our programs.
